

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 27. to Monday August 31. 1702.

Oxford, August 27.

THE University having understood, that Her Majesty designed them the Honour of passing through Oxford in her way to the Bath, took care to receive Her Majesty with the utmost Solemnity. Her Majesty was met yesterday by the Vice-Chancellor, Doctors and Masters in their Robes on Horseback, at some distance from Oxford, whither the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Abingdon Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire, with the High Sheriff and principal Gentlemen, had conducted Her Majesty from the Borders of this County. Dr. Mander the Vice-Chancellor, in the Name of the University, addressed himself to Her Majesty, and then they all waited on Her Majesty to her Court at Christ-Church. As Her Majesty entered into the Lodgings, the Dean, at the head of the Canons, paid his Duty to Her Majesty in English, and to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark in Latin. When Her Majesty came into her Room of State, she was Complimented in English Verse by Mr. Harcourt Son to the Solicitor-General, and his Royal Highness by Mr. Cowslade: At Supper, Mr. Finch, Son to the Hon. Heneage Finch Esq; one of the Burgesses for the University, paid Her Majesty the like Compliment; and when Her Majesty retired to her Bedchamber, the like was done by Mr. Pultney; All Gentlemen-Commoners of that Society. This day Her Majesty was pleased, in a Particular Manner, to Grace the University by her Royal Presence in Convocation, where the University having again presented their Duty and Thanks by their Orator, Her Majesty was graciously pleased to express her self in this manner;

Mr. Vice-Chancellor, and Gentlemen,

I Am very glad of this Occasion of assuring you of my Favour and Protection, and take these Marks of your Duty and Affection to Me very kindly. I shall always have a Particular Regard to this Great Body, that is so Considerable in it self, and so Useful both to Church and State.

During Her Majesty's stay there, these Noble and Honourable Persons then attending Her Majesty were created Doctors in Law, viz.

His Grace the Duke of Somerset, Master of the Horse to Her Majesty, and Chancellor of the University of Cambridge.

The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Jersey, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, Master of the Horse to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord Delaware, Groom of the Stole to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark.

The Rt. Hon. Peregrine Bertie Esq; Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majesty.

Sir Benjamin Bachurst Kt. Cofferer of Her Majesty's Household.

Sir John Walter Bar.

Sir Simon Harcourt Kt. Her Majesty's Solicitor-General.

William Bromley Esq; one of the Members in Parliament for the University.

Henry St. John Esq;

Edward Nicholas Esq; Treasurer to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark.

Charles Scarborough Esq; one of the Clerks of Her Majesty's Board of Green-Cloth.

From the Convocation-house Her Majesty went to the Theater, where a Concert of Vocal and Instrumental Musick was performed, and Poems were spoken by Mr. Oatley and Mr. Bilson Gentlemen-Commoners of Baliol College, and Mr. Bilson Gentleman-Commoner of New College. After this, Her Majesty was pleased there to accept of an Entertainment from the University; And the usual Presents being made to Her Majesty of a Bible and Common-Prayer Book and a Pair of Gloves, and to his Royal Highness of a Book of the Antiquities of Oxford and the Prints of the Colleges, and a Pair of Gloves, Her Majesty once more declared her self satisfied with the Expressions of their Duty, and took Coach for Cirencester.

Bath, August 29. On Thursday the 27th Instant Her Majesty set out from Oxon, and was attended by the Earl of Abingdon and several Gentlemen of that County to the utmost Bounds of it; And then was met by Samuel Eccles Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Gloucester, with a great number of Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, on the Borders of that County, where the Rt. Hon. John How Esq; presented the Sheriff to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive him very graciously, and the same night at Cirencester, at the House of Thomas Masters Esq; (where Her Majesty lodged) conferred on him the Honour of Knighthood.

Yesterday Her Majesty left Cirencester, and not far from thence was waited upon by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, and a great number of Gentlemen, Clergy-men, and others, by whom Her Majesty was conducted to Badmington, his Grace's House, where a very splendid Entertainment was prepared for Her Majesty, with which Her Majesty was well pleased.

About 8 the same night, Her Majesty and his Royal Highness arrived in this City, having been met by Samuel Rodbert Esq; High Sheriff, and his Men, on the Borders of our County upon Lansdown, and attended at Hyde-Park, within half a mile of this place by a handsome Company of our Citizens all clad like Granadiers, and about 200 Virgins in two Companies richly attired, many of them like Amazons with Bows and Arrows, and others with gilt Scepters, and other Emblems of the Regalia in their hands; All of them, with a set of Dancers who danced by the sides of Her Majesty's Coach, waited on Her Majesty and his Royal Highness to the West-Gate of this City, where they were received by our Mayor and Corporation in their Formalities. The Mayor in a short and loyal Speech welcomed Her Majesty and his Royal Highness, and then, being accompanied by Alexander Popham and William Blatway Esqs; our Representatives for the ensuing Parliament, proceeded in the following manner through the City to the Abbey House, which was prepared for Her Majesty's Reception. First marched the High Sheriff's Men all well mounted, and in blue Cloaks; then divers Gentlemen of the County, the High Sheriff, a Company of our Citizens in the manner of Artillery-men with Fire-Arms, the Dancers, the Corporation two and two, our Members of Parliament abovementioned, the Mayor and eldest Justice bearing the City Maces next before Her Majesty's Coach, which was followed by our abovementioned Granadiers, with the City Musick and the two Companies of Maids; Being come to Her Majesty's Lodging, the Mayor and Corporation were there graciously received by Her Majesty, and had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand. All the Streets were illuminated, and a great number of Flambeaux were carried before and on each side of Her Majesty's Coach; A Flag with St. George's Cross was displayed on the Tower, the Bells ringing in all the Churches, and the greatest Demonstrations of Joy to see Her Majesty in this part of her Kingdom, and of Loyalty and Affection to Her Majesty's Person and Government, were universally given by Her Majesty's Subjects of this City, and by the Inhabitants of the neighbouring Country, who came in great Crowds to be Spectators of Her Majesty's Entry here. This day our Mayor and Corporation, accompanied by our Representatives in Parliament, waited upon his Royal Highness, and were introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Delaware Groom of the Stole to his Royal Highness.

Francis